EQUALITY POLICY

Our Vision and Mission Statement

'Learning together in God's Love'

We are an inclusive Christian family, who 'Learn Together In God's Love' with mutual respect, tolerance and kindness. We treat each other as we would like to be treated (Matthew 7v12) this allows us to thrive in our education, friendships and journey through life. We are proud to say we are all equal.

Through the range of experiences we offer to all our pupils we encourage an understanding of the meaning and importance of faith and promote all the Christian Values. We particularly focus on Responsibility, Creativity, Forgiveness, Perseverance, Hope, Thankfulness and Friendship. These Christian values form the basis of our vision and are embedded throughout our school life and underpin all our teaching.

St Agnes is a small school that supports our community by providing an education of the highest quality within the context of Christian belief and practice. We work closely with our families to ensure they are fully supported and cared for

Legal framework

1. We welcome our duties under the Equality Act 2010 to eliminate discrimination, advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations in relation to age (as appropriate), disability, ethnicity, gender (including issues of transgender, and of maternity and pregnancy), religion and belief, and sexual identity.
2. We welcome our duty under the Education and Inspections Act 2006 to promote community cohesion.
3. We recognise that these duties reflect international human rights standards as expressed in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child, the UN Convention on the Rights of People with Disabilities, and the Human Rights Act 1998.

Equality Definition

Equality is about fairness and equality of opportunity and advancing equality of opportunity involves treating people differently. Some people may need extra help or adjustments to be part of the school community; this includes teachers, administration, cleaning or catering staff employed at the school as well as pupils/ students, parents and school governors. Relating to the Equality Act (2010) there are nine 'protected characteristics' these are age; disability, gender reassignment [transgender], marriage / civil partnership, pregnancy / maternity, race, religion and belief (and having no belief), sex (gender) and sexual orientation. Under the general duty schools must exercise 'due regard' in respect of each of the eight protected characteristics (excluding marriage and civil partnership) to:-

1. Eliminate unlawful discrimination and harassment
2. Advance equality of opportunity
3. Foster good relations between different groups.

Diversity Definition

Diversity is about valuing people as individuals and learning from our differences. Our differences can be visible and non-visible. Promoting diversity we can meet different needs creatively to ensure opportunities are available to all and potential is fulfilled. Promoting a diversity friendly school culture we are able to meet our school's aims and objectives more efficiently.

Culture is about the way we behave towards one another – school governors, all employees in the school, parents, pupils and the whole school community. It is about how we treat one another and respect our differences. Promoting diversity and a diversity friendly culture helps to create a more productive school community.

THE EQUALITY ACT 2010 AND SCHOOLS

St Agnes Primary School follows The Act and its guidelines which makes it unlawful for the responsible body (governing body) of a school to discriminate against, harass or victimise a pupil or potential:

- In relation to admissions
- In the way it provides education for pupils
- In the way it provides pupils access to any benefit, facility, or service or
- By excluding a pupil or subjecting them to any other detriment.

School is aware of 'unlawful behaviour' and understands the four definitions – direct discrimination; indirect discrimination; harassment and victimisation. The detailed explanations have been read and taken into account and are points 1.17 to 1.24 of the Act.

School also uses the Act to ensure that special provisions are made for disabled people. This means that school is allowed to treat disabled pupils more favourably than non-disabled pupils, and in some cases are required to do so, by making reasonable adjustments to put them on a more level footing with pupils without disabilities. Chapter 4 of the Act covers the requirements in detail and school follows these as necessary.

EQUALITY AIMS

- We aim to develop the children's awareness of the diversity of the society in which we live.
- We aim to equip our children, through the whole of their school experience, to develop positive attitudes towards a pluralistic society.
- All children and staff, regardless of race, gender or ability should have the opportunity to reach their full potential. We aim to ensure that all children have equal access to the curriculum offered in our school and that all children are given equal opportunities.

These are all protected characteristics.
- To ensure that school follows the law on victimisation in that it is now unlawful to victimise a child for anything done to the Act (Equality Act 2010) by their parent or sibling.
- School will comply with the above act by providing auxiliary aids and services for disabled pupils which are 'reasonable' and comply with the regulations brought into effect on 1 September 2012.
- We aim to make appropriate changes to teaching resources where applicable.
- Access Local Authority Services to improve practice and understanding e.g. EAL provision/guidelines, SEND practice and guidelines etc.
- Supporting children's emotional needs through pastoral care and access to a counsellor where applicable.
