

The Queen's Hat (UK)

- To use conjunctions in writing.
- To write a letter independently.
- To re-enact a story using associated language.

The Queen's Handbag

- To use expression when reading.
- To show understanding of the difference between non-fiction and fiction books.

Paddington Goes to Spain (Spain)

- To write giving my own opinions using 'and' and 'because'.
- To read using knowledge of language structure, subject knowledge and illustrations to interpret text.

EYFS Literacy Medium Term Planning Summer 2 Countries

Handa's Surprise (Kenya)

- To form most of my letters correctly when writing.
- To create a detailed story map,
- To write my own story.

The Ugly Five (Kenya)

- To form lower case and capital letters correctly.
- To anticipate key events in a story.
- To write a factfile.

Sloths don't run (Brazil)

- To demonstrate understanding of what I have read.
- To write sentences and phrases that can be read by others.